

Divorce 101:

A Divorce Seminar by Experienced Lawyers

Who:

John G. DiPiano, Esq.

1995 Graduate of New England School of Law, Cum Laude. Editor - Massachusetts Family Law Journal. 2006 Boston Magazine Super Lawyers - Rising Stars. Partner, DiPiano Godson LLP. Experienced Trial Attorney. Experienced Negotiator. Member Massachusetts Bar Association. Admitted Massachusetts and United States District Courts.

Lloyd D. Godson, Esq.

1992 Graduate of Boston College Law School. Member Massachusetts and Middlesex Bar Associations. Partner, DiPiano Godson LLP. Experienced Trial Attorney. Experienced Negotiator. Conciliator, Middlesex County Bar Association. Council Member, Middlesex Bar Association. Admitted to Massachusetts, United States District, and U.S. Supreme Courts.

What:

2-hour Survey Seminar covering such topics as the types of Divorce in Massachusetts. Alternative Dispute Resolution, Child Support, Alimony, Child Custody, Choosing a Lawyer, Managing Expectations During Divorce, Q&A.

When:

Saturday, October 21, 2006 10:00 a.m. - noon

Where:

Boston Marriot Peabody, 8A Centennial Drive, Peabody, Massachusetts

Why:

Divorce and family-related legal issues are difficult. Choosing the right lawyer is essential to your case being handled properly and to your satisfaction. This program will enable you to get straight answers and a basic understanding of the process. Information is vital to good choices in the most difficult of circumstances.

How:

Call Marcia Redgewell at 978-762-5550 or 617-720-5585 to reserve your seat. Tuition is $36.00 in advance check or money order. Seating is limited. Tuition includes a complimentary copy of "Divorce for Dummies."